

Gravel N°21 - Crossing of the Red Lands

Des falaises de Roquefort au Rougier

Gravel dans les montagnettes (Focal_77)

Fancy a ride through a setting like no other – a little bit of Colorado in Occitania? The Rougier de Camarès and its wine-red hills await you for a gravel ride bursting with colour and thrills

Your tyres will turn red as they roll along the tracks of the Camarès region! Alternating between tracks and roads, this loop plunges you straight into a shimmering landscape before taking you into the forest. The real challenge: a 16 per cent gradient (and a section where you'll have to push your bike) to climb up to the Loubière plateau, a beautiful expanse that looks as though it was made especially for gravel riding!
