

GR736® from St-Rome-de-Tarn to Le Truel

Des Raspes du Tarn aux Lacs du Lévézou

Raspes du Tarn depuis Ayssènes - ©Exo Dams

The Second Gorges of the Tarn, a medieval hamlet in a bush-covered valley, a hilltop village and hydroelectric dams: a journey full of surprises through the rugged landscape of the Rasperes

It is via the medieval hamlet of Le Minier and its steep path leading down to the village of Viala-du-Tarn that you enter Les Rasperes, rocky escarpments covered in chestnut trees. As you wander along the winding paths, or from the top of the Ayssènes viewpoint, discover a landscape that is both wild and tamed by hydroelectric dams, between which the River Tarn flows gently
